CHICAGO, IL (May 2014) – On May 12, 2014, Robert A. Clifford, founder of Clifford Law Offices, was presented with the prestigious 2014 American Inns of Court Foundation Professionalism Award for the Seventh Circuit at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Chicago to a packed crowd of more than 500 lawyers and judges.

Clifford, who was President of the Chicago Inn of Court from 1994-95, accepted the Professionalism award at the Seventh Circuit Judicial Conference by Seventh Circuit Judge Joel Flaum. He was selected by a panel of representatives that included justices from the Supreme Courts of Delaware, Tennessee and various U.S. Circuit Courts of Appeal.

According to American Inns of Court, “The American Inns of Court Circuit Professionalism Awards are awarded each year, in participating federal circuits, to a lawyer or judge whose life and practice display sterling character and unquestioned integrity, coupled with ongoing dedication to the highest standards of the legal profession and the rule of law.”

“I am deeply humbled by this most prestigious award,” Clifford said upon learning of his selection. “I try to live my professional life every day as a commitment to my love of the law and in mentoring those around me.”

Clifford will also be recognized at the American Inns of Court annual Celebration of Excellence at the Supreme Court of the United States on October 25, 2014. Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg will be hosting the black tie event.

Robert Clifford is a respected aviation accident attorney and personal injury attorney and the founder of Clifford Law Offices, a nationally recognized personal injury law firm in Chicago concentrating in aviation, transportation, personal injury, medical negligence, and product liability law.
