Clifford Law Offices

At Clifford, one of the area's top-ranked personal-injury law offices, first impressions count. The hard-working lawyers there want to instill confidence in their clients from their introductory handshake onward.

They're all sophisticated about suits—the ones they file. As for the other kind, they're happy to have a store—Syd Jerome—whose staffers are impeccable witnesses to good taste and classic style. "Because of the nature of our business, most days we are in suits," says partner Sean Driscoll, Esq., with an admirable lack of sartorial legalese. "Billy, our sales rep, helps prevent us from wearing the same blue suit all the time."

Conservative attire is de rigueur. But the professionals at Clifford rely on the Syd Jerome team to help make sure conservative never means monotonous. "I completely trust Billy," says Driscoll. "He helps me keep my choice of suits just right for the season. Also, I'm color-blind, so I rely on him to find something that, while comfortable, also looks just right on me."

The speedy service and tailoring at Syd are important for these attorneys, who often find themselves called to a last-minute hearing or deposition. Says Driscoll: "Syd is the place to go if you need something quick."
