Founder and senior partner Robert Clifford received the 2014 Professionalism Award from the American Inns of Court for the Seventh Circuit, an award given to a lawyer whose life and practice has demonstrated “sterling character and unquestioned integrity, coupled with ongoing dedication to the highest standards of the legal profession and the rule of law.” Bob Clifford is among Chicago’s Top Rated Lawyers of 2015, achieving an AV Preeminent perfect “5” rating by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest given by the peer review group that examines a lawyer’s high ethical standards and professional ability in five areas: legal knowledge, analytical capabilities, judgment, communication ability and legal experience. Keith Hebeisen, Kevin Durkin, Susan Capra and Richard Burke also received that rating. Clifford was named the #1 Super Lawyer in Illinois in 2015 by his peers, marking the seventh consecutive year he received the top honor in the state. Chicago Magazine publishes an annual list of 100 people with the most influence and power in the city, and once again Robert Clifford is on that list for 2015 at 76, a list that includes a U.S. Senator, venture capitalist billionaires and, of course, Rahm Emanuel, Chicago’s mayor.

Clifford Law Offices prides itself on tackling complex cases to the very end. The firm devotes 100 percent of its litigation resources to plaintiffs’ work, evidenced by its notable verdicts — some of them record setting — in a variety of tort practice areas. Clifford Law Offices was named one of the National Law Journal’s Top 50 “America’s Elite Trial Lawyers” in the country in 2014, the only Chicago law firm to be awarded this honor. Clifford Law Offices was twice named on the “Plaintiff’s Hot List: 20 Go-To Teams” by the National Law Journal. It has received first-tier rankings in various practice areas including medical malpractice, product liability and mass tort/class action work by U.S. News-Best Lawyers “Best Law Firms” Guide. Its excellence is demonstrated in its work for its clients including a $29.6 million verdict for internationally-acclaimed violinist Rachel Barton, multi-million dollar settlements on behalf of those injured or killed in the scaffolding collapse at the John Hancock Building and the tragic fire at the Cook County Building, and a $25.9 million verdict in 2015 for a lawyer injured in a Yellow Cab crash. Robert Clifford was named one of Chicago’s “30 Toughest Lawyers” by Chicago Magazine, recognizing his and the firm’s work on nearly every major aviation crash in the United States — and many international crashes — in the last three decades.
