CHICAGO, IL (May 2015) – Bradley M. Cosgrove, partner and medical malpractice attorney at Clifford Law Offices, was elected to the Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA) Assembly representing Cook County for a three-year term in the recent election on Wednesday, May 6, 2015.

Of the twenty-three candidates running for twenty-one spots, Cosgrove was the fifth highest vote-getter in his inaugural attempt in running for office for this statewide organization. For all of the election results, visit: <http://bit.ly/1KSp2qR>

A successful trial attorney, Cosgrove has been active in a number of organizations, including recently being elected to serve on the Board of Managers of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association. He also was recently elected to the American Board of Trial Advocates.

“We are very proud of Brad and his continuing accomplishments both in and out of the courtroom,” said Robert A. Clifford, founder and senior partner at the firm. “Brad is hard working and is always giving back to the legal community and to the Chicago community in so many ways. He is a lawyer to whom many look up for his professionalism, his dedication and his hard work day in and day out.”

Clifford Law Offices congratulates all the winners in this annual ISBA election that includes James F. McCluskey of Lisle being elected Third Vice President of the organization in a contested race. Jessica O’Brien also was successful in her contested bid in Cook County for the ISBA Board of Governors.

Umberto S. Davi of Western Springs will succeed to the office of President, Vincent F. Cornelius of Wheaton will succeed to the office of President-Elect, and Russell W. Hartigan of Western Springs will succeed to the office of Second Vice President. All of the winners will take office at the Annual Meeting in June to be held in Lake Geneva.
